

Toddler Time! - How to Make A Clothespin Shark

Crafting Supplies:

- Wooden clothespin
- Light blue (or gray), white and orange card stock
- Toothpick
- Googly eye
- Shark pattern

Crafting Tools:

- scissors
- glue stick
- hot glue gun
- gray marker

When using a glue gun, we strongly advise a parent or guardian supervises. Thanks!

- Use the shark pattern to cut the top half and the bottom fin from blue paper, and the bottom half of the shark from white paper.
- Cut the fish from orange paper. Cut the toothpick to about 1-inch in length. Hot glue the toothpick to the back of the orange fish. Use glue stick to attach the blue fin to the white body.

When using a glue gun, we strongly advise a parent or guardian supervises. Thanks!

- Hot glue the bottom of the toothpick to the back of the white body, about half an inch from the end of the mouth.
- Glue the shark body pieces to the clothespin, starting at the spring leaving the handle end exposed.

When using a glue gun, we strongly advise a parent or guardian supervises. Thanks!

- Use a gray marker to draw on the gills. Glue on the googly eye.
- You will need to bend the white part of the shark a little so that when you open and close the mouth, the small fish doesn't hit the top of the shark.
